

Mark 13:28 - 37 Living In The Light Of Eternity

28 "Now learn the parable from the fig tree: when its branch has already become tender and puts forth its leaves, you when leaves emerge life is about to burst forth

know that summer is near. 29 Even so, you too, when you see

The Tribulation is the first bursting of leaves (these things happening) recognize that He is near, right at the door. 30 Truly I say to you (this generation will not pass)

The generation that sees the Trib. begin will not die until Christ comes away until all these things take place. 31 Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away. 32 But of that day or hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but the Father alone.

33 "Take heed, keep on the alert; for you do not know when the appointed time will come. 34 It is like a man away on a journey, who upon leaving his house and putting his slaves in charge, assigning to each one his task, also commanded the doorkeeper to stay on the alert. 35 Therefore, be on the alert—for you do not know when the master of the house is coming, whether in the evening, at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or in the morning— 36 in case he should come suddenly and find you asleep. 37 What I say to you I say to all,

'Be on the alert!'

This truth is more certain than the world you see

But you must live as if he will come at any moment and there is an appointed time a job with accountability don't fall asleep in the light

An illustration

that's Jesus

that's us

• each of us has an assignment